

2018 6th Grade Pi Day Results

355	3927	377
113	1250	120
333	223	22
106	71	7

Pi Day March 14

Congratulations to all 6th graders who participated in the 2019 Pi Day Competition. The day consisted of 7 individual categories where each homeroom competed against each other to capture the 2019 title.

The winning class from the Pi Poem category was submitted from Mr. Chenette's class written by Phoebe, MeiMei, Katrina, Ella, Reese, Kallen, Caitlyn and Natasha. The poem was written where the number of letters in each word corresponds with the digits in order in Pi. Here is the Poem:

Sup, U dude I slack attention in school. Stamm was being silly, Pittella's mathematic monologue was not funnsies. Miss Blair is running over the kid's toesies. Look out!

The following students all memorized over 100 digits of Pi:

- Henry Hadley
- Mel Molis
- Eva Murphy
- Lexi Sheahan
- Gabe Sullivan
- Natasha Lebedev
- Kaitlyn Micale
- Ryleigh Richard
- Shanelle Mbabaali

This years Pi digit memorization winner is Ian Studer with 235 digits! Congrats Ian

Congratulations to the 20 parents who submitted entries for the Parental Pi Challenge category. There were notable performances by the Harris family, the Arone family, Mr. Lawrance, Pittella/Murphy fathers, and the Durney Family. Congratulations to John Crosby who won this category with 122 digits recited! The video can be found here.

The overall results are the following:

- Pi Scavenger Hunt – Pittella
- Pi Jeopardy – Mrs. McGinnis' class
- Pi Digit memorization – Mr. Pittella's class with 1,195 Digits
- Pi Poem Competition – Mr. Chenette's class
- Pi Investigation – Mr. Pittella's class
- Parental Pi Challenge – Mrs. Stamm Class
- Pi Video WS - McGinnis

Congrats to the winners of the 2018 Pi Day Competition is Mr. Pittella's Homeroom!